TAX PLANNING

1. Cut down on taxes
2. Make the interest on your mortgage tax deductible (where applicable)
3. indirectly generate tax deductible expenses from your personal expenses

We will discuss with you

- About the main reasons how you become a target for an audit from cra (keep in mind that this does not guarantee that you will not be audited)
- Home office expenses - what can be deducted and how much can be deducted
- Vehicle expenses - what can be deducted and how much can be deducted

Which method of GST/HST filing you are currently using? There are 2 methods. We can assess which option is best for your business.

YOU'VE QUESTIONS, WE'VE ANSWERS

Can you hire your spouse or your children?

How old should be the children before you can hire them, if you can of course?

Do you have to pay your spouse or your children, if you can hire them? Even though you take care of their personal expenses?

We are partners, should all expenses be split equally?

THINKING TO INCORPORATE

Are you ready to incorporate your business? Let us help you assess your future success. Timing, expenses, assets, home office, implications for inventory, receivables, payables and loans are taken into account as we determine the next best step for you.
